Have You Seen Mary

Sponge

Oh yeah, oh yeahIf you see Mary, please, will you help her?
She seems to be looking for answers
If you see Mary, please, will you help her
With questions that go unanswered?Like why does she feel all dead on the inside?
But as a child she remembers feelin' alive
Who was that man that made my mother cry all night?
Was that my father? Who was my father?If you see Mary, please, will you help her?
She seems to be looking for answers
If you see Mary, please, will you help her
With questions that go unanswered?The men that walked into her life
Are no different than all the others
That promise the world and then they leave her
She says, I should have known better, should have known betterOh yeah, oh yeah, oh yeahAnd will she always feel so all alone?
Why was there never a man in her home?
And will I end up like my mother?
By myself with no other, with no other?If you see Mary, please, will you help her?
She seems to be looking for answers
If you see Mary, please, will you help her
With questions that go unanswered?Oh yeah yeah
Oh yeah yeahIf you see Mary, please, will you help her?
If you see Mary, please, will you help her?
If you see Mary, please, will you help her?
If you see Mary

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/