

Lay

Tantric

Come on, get out
Is there something that you're feeling let out
'Cause there's a price you'll pay and get out
Won't you get outta here? Come on, be free
From your demons, lay on to me
So now I feel the pain that you feel
And it's not getting better 'Cause I've been there before
A soul I came back for
What does life have in store
Before I lay, I lay Well, stand up and leave
I see you sinking [Incomprehensible]
Don't be afraid of who you want to be
Just stand and brave the weather Hope is in your hand
Don't let this feeling fade if you can
The home is not to you, it is your land
And faith will make it better 'Cause I've been there before
A soul I came back for
What does life have in store
Before I lay your head, nothing lasts forever
So don't stress your head
The best is yet to come
So you should rest your mind
Looking out the window sill that you will find
You're blind if you don't know 'Cause I've been there before
A soul I came back for
What does life have in store
Before I lay, I lay, I lay, I lay

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>