

One Boy. One Girl

Collin Raye

He finally gave in to his friend's girlfriend
When she said "There's someone you should meet"
At a crowded restaurant way cross town, he waited impatiently
When she walked in, their eyes met and they both stared
And right there and then
Everyone else disappeared But one boy, one girl, two hearts beating wildly
To put it mildly, it was love at first sight
He smiled, she smiled, and they knew right away
This was the day, they'd been waiting for all their lives
For a moment the whole world
Revolved around one boy and one girl In no time at all, they were standing there in the front of a little church
Among their friends and family, repeating those sacred words
The preacher said, "Son, kiss your bride"
And he raised her veil
Like the night they met
Time just stood still For one boy, one girl, two hearts beating wildly
To put it mildly, it was love at first sight
He smiled, she smiled, and they knew right away
This was the day, they'd been waiting for all their lives
For a moment the whole world
Revolved around one boy and one girl He was holding her hand when the doctor looked up and grinned
"Congratulations, twins" One boy, one girl, two hearts beating wildly
To put it mildly, it was love at first sight
He smiled, she smiled, and they knew right away
This was the day, they'd been waiting for all their lives
And for a moment the whole world
Revolved around one boy and one girl
