All In My Head

Seven Places

Fall, fall my eyes onto the page
Filling my mind with endless knowledge but in vain
Puff, puff my mind blows up and I
Am left with everything that nothing is inside
Oh Lord, I thought I knew it all
My heart was not informed I know nothing at all
I fall apart, when it's all in my head
Thought knowledge would save me left a void instead
Move into my heart bring to life what was dead
I can't feel Your heartbeat when You're in my head
If my mind is full but my heart isn't there
That's like trying to inhale without the air
So dear Jesus breathe new life in me
Resuscitate this heart of mine give it a beat
Oh Lord, I thought I knew it all
My heart was not informed I know nothing at all

I fall apart, when it's all in my head
Thought knowledge would save me left a void instead
Move into my heart bring to life what was dead
I can't feel Your heartbeat when You're in my head
What if salvation had been Something he only thought about
What if he never let it sink into His heart
He could have simply spoken
Wise words erasing human doubts
But now I have a pulse he spoke them with His heart
I fall apart, when it's all in my head
Thought knowledge would save me left a void instead
Move into my heart bring to life what was dead
I can't feel Your heartbeat when You're in my head
Move into my heart bring to life what was dead
I can't feel Your heartbeat when You're in my head
When You're in my head, when You're in my head
When You're in my head

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/