Don't Let Go

The Polaroid People

You never knew how much
You really meant to me
And I dont think you ever will
Coz its impossible for me
To put it into words
But the look in my eyes
Speaks louder than the words
That I wrote for you tonight
But I just cant bear theNights like these alone
Laying frozen in the cold
I pray to god that Im here temporarily
Coz I cant take it anymore
And I need you more then ever
Dont let go
Please dont let me go
Im begging you dont let me go
Coz Im struggling without youAnd I try to sleep at night
But youre all I think about
And I try to lift my heart
But it just sinks further down
And only your kiss
Could break me out of this
Coz Im struggling
And I just cant bear theNights like these alone
Laying frozen in the cold
I close my eyes and picture you beside me
But its killing me inside
And I need you more then ever
Dont let go
Please dont let me go
Im begging you dont let me go
Coz Im falling apart without youCoz Im falling apart without you
And I just cant bear theNights like these alone
Laying frozen in the cold
I close my eyes and picture you beside me
But its killing me inside
And I need you more then ever
Dont let me go
Please dont let me go

Im begging you dont let me go
Cos Im falling apart,
And I love you.
