

Angel's Eyes

Jan Wayne

On a cold and lonely morning
Rain clouds over my head
Gloomy memories in mind
No way seems to lead out Then suddenly a shine came through
Rainbow high in the sky
There he was dressed in blue
I never had a doubt When I looked into angel's eyes
My heart started burning
When I looked into angel's eyes
My mind got yearning When I looked into angel's eyes
My heart started burning
When I looked into angel's eyes
The world began turning
