

Just Because

Ginuwine

Ah, come on, check it out
Come on, uh uh uh, oh yeah, baby Just because, I'm all G'd up, doesn't mean I'm out to cut
Just because, boo, I got game, doesn't mean I'll forget your name
Because I push a 6, doesn't mean I'll ego trip
It's hard to believe a playa like me could treat you like a lady
Just because Hearing my name every other day
People gonna say what they wanna say
But they don't really know me, babe
Hate on me 'cause a brother paid Only known you for a short time
Things that you're hearing weighing on my mind
If you feel me, here's what I suggest
Let me put your fears to rest Baby, I admit it I used to Hit it and I quit it but I'm trying to Learn to be committed to you and only, I'm your man Just because, I'm all G'd up, doesn't mean I'm out to cut
Just because, boo, I got game, doesn't mean I'll forget your name
Because I push a 6, doesn't mean I'll ego trip
It's hard to believe a playa like me could treat you like a lady
Just because Listen now, I can understand why you're insecure
Doing all I can just to reassure
Seeing all these women at my stage door
Screaming 'G' is the one that we're here for I know if we go by my history
This might be hard to believe
But they don't mean a thing to me
I am still the same ol' 'G' Baby I admit it I used to Hit it and I quit it, I'm trying to, baby
Learn to be committed to you and only, I'm your man Just because, I'm all G'd up, doesn't mean I'm out to cut
Just because, boo, I got game, doesn't mean I'll forget your name
Because I push a 6, doesn't mean I'll ego trip
It's hard to believe a playa like me could treat you like a lady
Just because You're the one I wanted 'cause them other chicks
Couldn't much on it see you kept it real
So you're gonna get rewarded no doubt, baby, I'm your man, check it out Baby, I admit it I used to Hit it and I quit it but I'm trying to Learn to be committed to you and only, I'm your man, yeah Uh, come on, baby
Oh oh, uh uh Just because, I'm all G'd up, doesn't mean I'm out to cut
Just because, boo, I got game, doesn't mean I'll forget your name
Because I push a 6, doesn't mean I'll ego trip
It's hard to believe a playa like me could treat you like a lady Just because, I'm all G'd up, doesn't mean I'm out
to cut

Just because, boo, I got game, doesn't mean I'll forget your name
Because I push a 6, doesn't mean I'll ego trip
It's hard to believe a playa like me could treat you like a lady Just because, I'm all G'd up, doesn't mean I'm out
to cut
Just because, boo, I got game, doesn't mean I'll forget your name
Because I push a 6, doesn't mean I'll ego trip
It's hard to believe a playa like me could treat you like a lady
Just because
