Prove You Wrong

Until the End

Do these words mean
Nothing to you anymore
Are they just lies fit to be proven
It's your choice, It's your lifeIt's time to decide who you are
And where your loyalties lie
It doesn't matter at all
The damage is done,
But it's still your life
My life is torn apart, where can i go
And who can I trust
It doesnt matter at all,
My hearts already gone
But it's still, my lifeDo these words mean
Nothing to you anymore
Are they just lies fit to be proven
It's your choice, It's your lifeI'm here to prove
You wrong
Prove you wrong
