

I Speed at Night (Remastered)

DIO

Dark touches send rushed through the brain
Black's whiter, burns brighter than the flame
No shadows, just whispers in the wind
No faces, just places to begin
I just come seeking pleasure,
I hate the light I speed at night, at night My demons, they seem to disappear
No vision, I only see to hear
Protection, I never needed none
Direction, just nowhere near the sun
You've got some stairs to heaven,
You may be right
I only know in my world,
I hate the light I speed at night Dark touches send rushed through the brain
Black's whiter, burns brighter than the flame
No shadows, just whispers in the wind
No faces, just places to begin
I just come seeking pleasure,
I hate the light You've got some stair to heaven,
You may be right
I only know in my world,
I hate the light I speed at night
