L.A.F

Broods

Kissing in the hallway
Turn off all the lights
Flag once of a lost love
Dissolve into the night

And I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forget

But it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Yours is the slim girl in white
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you

Climb into the backseat
Setting on each other's names
Wanna be on repeat
Acting like villains

And I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forget

But it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Yours is the slim girl in white
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you

I got you
I got you

And I'll never get this feeling out of my head
And I'll never wanna be the one you forget

But it's the pain inside your eyes
Under the streetlights, I got you
Yours is the slim girl in white
Coming for mine 'cause I've got you
