Miles End

Gomez

Chinese symbols on his robe Never gonna match up with that smile He's wearing mostly black and gold It's been twelve days, the longest for a whileHe's been fortunate He can't tell a lie Redheads, blonds, brunettes They all fall for his linesHe's been king now for so long His days are numbered Times have changed, so move along The dream is overDraped across Egyptian linen Even Cleopatra casts an eye A gossamer see-through zipped up tracksuit Champagne bottle, ten o'clock on fireHe's been fortunate He cannot deny Jacuzzi baronet With soap suds in his eyesHe's been king now for so long His days are numbered Times have changed, so move along The dream is overHe's been king now for so long His days are numbered Times have changed, so move along The dream is overWe've been waiting for so long We think it's over
