

Here, Nearby

Grey Daze

Melted candles on the window sill
Perfume in the haze
Ashtrays spread across the floor
On a normal day
We lay out across the bed
Just like we always did
And in this house
The devil laid his hand on our head
And made them spin, Yeah I want to be your man
If you think I care
I want to be your man
Your man, lord No more defenses
Like no more peace of mind
Keeping in these knives stabbing
Spilling out your blood to me
Man, Yeah
