Huh, no woman no would use to call man dog
But I'm the original D A W G, sweetest kin
The original pedigree, no ticks nor flea, Doberman Shaggy

Don't call me name if you not down inna mi shoes
Gal a call man dog, same man a take gal fi use
Don't call me name if you not down inna mi shoes
Call me human, rather call me animal
Brother one pit bull, mi sister one Doberman
Have three lickle pup and them a Alsatian
Have a Chihuahua too but be a peregrin pal
Have mi French poodle, she a mi woman
And of course Shagsman, the Doberman, the handsome one
Maybe niam off your foot, da, da, da, niam off your arm
Tear at your head if you now trouble I man
Say wah
Motion, gal me inna the motion, Lord
Rub down your body with lotion
Inna the motion, gal, inna the motion, umm, naw
Rub down your body with lotion
Me have mi beer drinking pal called Sport McKenzy
A shoemaker friend, the one them call Bosh Puppy
When it come to fight him a just hang on for we Lickle but him tall a what I tell mi brethrin Scrappy
And the coward is one a the uncle Scooby, yow
Who the leader fi the posse, I and I man Shaggy
Rough did one time, me never want that ready
And true ready him a puss hound with a private pussy
Rin, tin tin tin and him a police pecky
And the one named Lassie breathe fi Sport McKenzy
Should I breathe fi Shaggy, get a little pedigree?
Take it from the number one, the youth named Shaggy
