

You and I

Built to be Broken

Sit down and take a seat
Don't try to look right through me
I know you're hurting, but
Don't take it out on me
We used to stare out at the sea
You used to sing to me
Don't try to fake it, no
Just tell me what you need Don't you tell me everything's alright
(Tell how you're feeling won't you)
I won't let the sun go out of sight
(Chase away the shadows from you)
I won't wait a second until you and I are right I refuse to waste this night
You and I will get this right I won't let the world spin one more time
(Stop the world from spinning for you)
I won't see the stars or let them shine
(Paint over the night sky for you)
I won't waste a second until you and I are right I refuse to waste this night
You and I will get this right Pull out your phone and see
All the memories of you and me
Don't throw it all away
You need to hear me say Sing it out
Scream it loud
Shake it out all night
Tear the air
Don't get scared
Let it all come now
You know that I
You know I
