

Walk A Thin Line

Fleetwood Mac

(Written by Lindsey Buckingham)

I seen so many things that make me wonder

 But sometimes it's hard to tell

 I said, "Take your time"

 But no one was listenin'

 I walk a thin line

They told me that I never would recover

 Still some say they knew me well

 I said "Stay by my side"

 But no one said nothin'

 I walk a thin line

And I said "Please toe the line"

 But no one said nothin'

 I walk a thin line

And I said "Fate takes time"

 But no one was listenin'

 I walk a thin line
