

Powder Blue / Cascine Park

Yumi Zouma

[Verse 1]

I was only wanting
Hour on the phone like
Till your reasons start to shift
Really think you could give yourself away
Half a moments living in the sunset of our youth
Kill the world wasn't enough to turn us loose
You never notice when my breathing gets loud
But give yourself a break[Pre-Chorus]

Another sunlight in your eyes
And now they remind me of
Nothing ever made it right

[Chorus]

Painting it powder blue
Like the reflections in your room
We can just take a day
Acting around on top of you[Verse 2]

Time there was a cracked wrist
Honouring intentions
Dancing in the pouring rain
You don't deserve to miss every chance you get
I discovered that you wouldn't like to give up
It makes me wonder if you'd ever give me trust
I heard you think I'm not the quickest catch
But you know we've got it made[Pre-Chorus]

It's just a lover's bid to lose
One o' clock after noon
To follow all the paths you choose

[Chorus]

Painting it powder blue
Like the reflections in your room
We can just take a day
Acting around on top of you
Counting the time of dream
Love's an illusion hard to keep
Spinning the dark
To make it all fall back in peace[Bridge]
You tread them through like it's just another day
(I'll take your word for it)

He'll treat the weeks like they're for free
You soften your voice
I know exactly what I'm supposed to do
To look all the boys, I could say anything I wanted to[Pre-Chorus]
It's just a lover's bid to lose
One o' clock after noon
To follow all the paths you choose[Chorus]
Painting it powder blue
Like the reflections in your room
We can just take a day
Acting around on top of you
Counting the time of dream
Love's an illusion hard to keep
Spinning the dark
To make it all fall back in peace
