

The Rush

Luther Vandross

What happened
It seems like every time love comes
You're never ready
That's why they call it?
The Rush Tell me, are you there?
Could it be that you're the answer to my prayer
See, I've prayed for peace and love
Like so many of us do
Then I prayed to find someone like you
Up in the morning
Fell out of my bed
Worn out, I couldn't sleep
Thoughts of you filled my head
How could it be?
This is scaring me Seems every time I try
To rest my heart is when
The rush is back again
Maybe this time I'll
Make it work somehow
Guess I'm gonna find out now I get a rush
And it's love for sure
What else can it be Something beckons me
And I go back for more
Ooo such a rush
Can't pass love by
What else can I do Something tells me to Give it one more try I'm not gonna die if love passes me by
It goes and comes around, I know
So maybe the next time I'll be one of the few Chosen by love to do just what I wanna do
I will carry on wading through every day till love needs me
Waiting for the rush to come and find me
I still remember when love was an angel send
It will be back again I can't remember when, I can't remember how It's very different now
It's not a fantasy, it's very real to me
True to the touch

I get a rush

Songwriters

Vandross, Luther / Miller, Marcus

Published by Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Universal Music Publishing Group Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>