

15 Minutes

Jamie Foxx

15 minutes Excuse me, but I was wonderin' when
You were gonna speak 'cause I saw you lookin'
Back to the wall talkin' to all your friends
Thinkin' out loud, did you see me again? Let me find out
You ain't gettin' that lovin' like you should
Let me find out
Babe, put me down, like you know I would Girl, I know just what you're lookin' for Girl, I know just what you need
Ain't you tired of all your foolishness?
Girl, you need to be fuckin' with me Come and find out what's the real reason
Why they be runnin' they mouth?
Come and find out, what's all the hoopla
What's all the buzzing about? 'Cause baby, you can get it, you can get it
Tell me, just say the word and I'm gon' give it
I'm not wastin' your time, runnin' my mind, sellin' lines
To say what's on my mind If you give me 15 minutes
I'll make you feel like a woman tonight
All I need is 15 minutes
To take you on the ride of your life Baby, all I need is 15 minutes
Any more than that will kill the vibe
'Cause I bet you after 15 minutes
You'll need another 15, another 15 minutes of love It's 'bout to get crazy, 'bout to go down
Seems like you're ready for the first round
Hope you can handle what I give out
This ain't a scandal, you stick around, it's done now Baby, hold on to me, don't let go
Don't act shy now
Promise you'll be back begging for more I'm throwin' ideas, I'm doin' my thing
You lookin' back like I'm crazy, deranged
Told you the deal, told you this ain't a game
You screamin' out like you're goin' insane, oh Finally gettin' what you deserve
You can breathe down deep
Givin' you all of me, that's my word 'Cause baby, you can get it, you can get it
Tell me, just say the word and I'm gon' give it
I'm not wastin' your time, runnin' my mind, sellin' lines
To say what's on my mind If you give me 15 minutes
I'll make you feel like a woman tonight
All I need is 15 minutes
To take you on the ride of your life Baby, all I need is 15 minutes
Any more than that will kill the vibe

'Cause I bet you after 15 minutes
You'll need another 15, another 15 minutes of love
Time to re-up, time for my second wind
Time to go in, that was just the beginnin'
Baby, by now you should already know
Knew what it was when you walked through the door
Girl, let's keep this goin' all night
I promise it'll be alright
If you give me 15 minutes
I'll make you feel like a woman tonight
All I need is 15 minutes
To take you on the ride of your life
Baby, all I need is 15 minutes
Anymore than that will kill the vibe
'Cause I bet you after 15 minutes
You'll need another 15, another 15 minutes of love
Do you want another 15 minutes?
It don't take long when you know what you're doing
Oh, I'm talkin' 'bout makin' love, baby
