Desire

Toad the Wet Sprocket

I want to be clean, I want to be whole
Want revenge, I want control
I want to give up, I want to give in
Destroy all I have beenI want to be cruel, I want to be cold
Want a chance to sell my soul
I want to break out, I want to dive in
To lose myself in sinI said that I don't need anything
I'm just wanting, just wanting
I said that I don't need anything
I'm just wanting, just wantingDesire all, desire is
Desire breeds desire
Desire all, desire is
Desire feeds desireI want to scream, I want to shout
Want to have faith and never doubt
I want to bend, I want to break
To sleep and never wakeTo break down walls and to escape
Be alone and hide my face
I want to feel, I want to touch
Want to stop wanting it so muchI said that I don't need anything
I'm just wanting, just wanting
I said that I don't need anything
I'm just wanting, just wantingDesire all, desire is
Desire feeds desire
Desire all, desire is
Desire breeds desireDesire all, desire is
Desire feeds desire
Desire all, desire is
Desire breeds desireDesire breeds desire
Desire breeds desire
