

Strangled By the Thought (Cured)

The New Amsterdams

Weak from lack of oxygen
Strangled by the thought
Promise you'll remember
When I'm gone Sleep is mostly optional
Trace lines around my heart
Steal the only breath from my lungs
And if I had your faith, I'd be fearless But until that day, I'm envious
Miles and miles that distance us
Like meters on a map
Trace lines that only translate to a day But if you're awake, tell me it's safe
If you ask me to stay, then I'll stay
Don't leave me here, when I'm bleedin'
When I'm fadin', when I'm true And it's tempting
Would you stop everything
When I'm pourin' out to you?
So take everything, take it all from me All I want
All I want is you
