Carried Away

Tait

You're standing right behind me
I feel you breathing down my neck
I try to catch you but you're goneYou whisper the words that draw me
Into your web of influence
Your sweet illusion's like a songYou say my name
Like I'm the only game in this town
Oh, but just the same
You know you gotta stop hangin' around'Cause I'm carried away
A full-on freak display
I've got so much to say
And you're never gonna get my crown
No, you're never gonna shut me down
'Cause I'm carried awayYou're such the fallen angel
Yeah, you're the villain in disguise
Tellin' dark and lovely liesI dove right into your ocean
Tasted the salt of murky seas
I've seen beyond your mysteriesAnd I'm to blame
Thought I was the only game in this town
Oh, but you're so vain
That you're never gonna figure it out'Cause I'm carried away
A full-on freak display
I've got so much to say
And you're never gonna get my crown
No, you're never gonna shut me down'Cause I'm carried away
So carried away
I'm carried away
So carried awaySticks and stones from your lofty throne
My soul's been set freeI'm so carried away
A full-on freak display
I've got so much to say
And you'll never shut me down
