Gap Year

JPNSGRLS

My stomachâ€™s in knots
My vision is blurred
This womanâ€™s a goddess that I donâ€™t deserve
I smile and nod completely immersed
I lie there in awe and then I learn from her curves
Iâ€™m gonna twist all her words against me

She found love right on her back
She found meaning in her gap year, her gap year
She found love right on her back
She found meaning in her gap year

The soul is a dreamer
The bodyâ€™s a clock
Thereâ€™s so many critters that we should adopt
Oh, she played annie when she was a kid
She knocked back her drink and she pulled out a wig
And sang a couple of hits while fading out

She found love right on her back
She found meaning in her gap year
Oh, she found love right on her back
She found meaning in her gap year, her gap year
Woo

A hopeful baby Iâ€™m not
I liked you maybe a lot
I fantasize you on top
Oh I realize I should stop
But we all want somebody raw
To fall in love with our flaws
And grab us right by the jaws
And make us feel weâ€™ve evolved

She found love right on her back
She found meaning in her gap year, her gap year
Oh
(x4)

She wonâ€™t come back here

In her gap year
