Welcome to My Party

Rusted Root

It ain't me
You were looking for
You stood upon it
And then you walked away from the door'Cause and I thought that bell would ring twice
But now I know for sure
That it ain't me
You were looking forWelcome to my party for you
Welcome to my party for you
WelcomeWelcome to my party for you
Welcome to my party for you
Welcome to my party for you'Cause you hooked by heart
Until it tore
I had to burn the house down
Well, just to get through the door'Cause and I thought that bell would ring twice
But now I know for sure
That it ain't me
You were looking forWelcome to my party for you
Welcome to my party for you
WelcomeWelcome to my party for you
Welcome to my party for you
Welcome to my party for youYou gotta bleed your own blood
To get on through that fire
You gotta ways to goWelcome, welcome
'Cause it ain't me, yeah
Ooh, it ain't me, yeah, yeah yeah yeah
Did you bait the love?
Welcome, welcome
'Cause it ain't me, yeah
