

Unstable

Adema

I wanted to know, who you really are
I needed the chance, to stitch up my scars
I'm closer to you, than I was in the start
Come dive right in, and tear me apartUndoubt
And we can't get along
I thought I was strong
We are so unstableAnd me, I'm strung out from your touch
But I won't give you up
We are so unstableI wanted to learn, about the dark side of you
You bring me down, like a bottle of pills
I hate the way that you're making me feel
I keep coming back, I never get hereUndoubt
And we can't get along
I thought I was strong
We are so unstableSo unstable
We're so unstableWe're so unstable
We're so unstableUndoubt
And we can't get along
I thought I was strong
We are so unstableUndoubt
And we can't get along
I thought I was strong
We are so unstableYou're so unstable
You're so unstable
You're so unstable
We're so unstable
