

Nightmare (Remastered)

Hypocrisy

You wake up in the middle of the night,
Wallowing in sweat.
I'm the worst of dreams you ever feared.
I'm in your dreams, I'm in your soul.
You never get away from here, and that's my goal. You've always tried to run away
But I'm in your dreams, and I'm alive! Whoa ha ha I rule your dreams!
I am your, nightmare! You can't get out, you start to scream.
Praying for all yours: "End at dawn!"
Is it dream or is it real?
I came not for flesh and blood. You're longing for delight
Don't you know, that you already died!
