

Sittin' Back

Res

Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mineSittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at thatSo they call us stars, get that
And not all of us are chosen
And I drive a car with the top back
'Cause my vanity's my tokenNow all this talkin' ain't my style
About some responsibilities
Like this here nation is my child
Like it's a direct humilitySo I'll be sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mineSittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at thatYou talkin' 'bout white children
Who kill their parents before school
But I'm talkin' pimped out Lexus with the rims black
So when I drive by I look coolGoodness the President's human
And you're all hypocrites
I think I'm jaded make a sport of it
Is I'm numb now to the shitSo I'll be sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mineSittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at thatI just wanna blow up then why
Oh baby who knows who wins the game
When I close my eyes it looks all the same
I don't wanna know nobody's name'Cause I'm going for dough when I go for game
'Cause I'm going for dough when I go that's why
I'm sittin' back in cut looking like something you don't touch
I stay held up in the rush, you turn to face it all for what?
No I ain't gonna be no hero, I ain't gonna be no hero, I be sittin' backSo I'll be sittin' back in the cut looking fine

Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mineSittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at that nigga, what the shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Look at thatSittin' back in the cut looking fine
Nigga what, nigga what shit is mine
Sittin' back in the cut looking fine
Nigga what, nigga, nigga what
