The Devils Interval

Codeseven

The sunshine prisoner
fastened to chair
thoughtless, he talks to himself the prince of lunatics
alone with the kids
dogma of monsters exist we sing our mantra like thisit wont break my heart if the stars fall out of the sky
i'll try hard
the devil is just a mile awayromantic humanist fast to the grave
thoughtless, a tortured slave dramatic passionate
alone in the cube molded from picture tubesit wont break my heart
the devil is just a mile away
