

Every Road Leads Back to You

Bette Midler

Old friend, here we are
After all the years and tears
And all that we've been through
It feels so good to see you Lookin' back in time
There've been other friends and other lovers
But no other one like you
All my life, no one ever has known me better I must have traveled down a thousand roads
Been so many places, seen so many faces
Always on my way to somethin' new Ohh but it doesn't matter
'Cause no matter where I go
Every road leads back
Every road just seems to lead me back to you Old friend, there were times
I didn't want to see your face
Or hear your name again
No those times are far behind me It's so good to see your smile
I'd forgotten how nobody else
Could make me smile the way you do
All this time, you're the one I still want beside me I must have traveled down a thousand roads
Been so many places, seen so many faces
Always on my way to somethin' new Ohh but it doesn't matter
'Cause no matter where I go
Every road leads back
Every road just seems to lead me back to you I must have traveled down a thousand roads
Been so many places, seen so many faces
Always on my way to somethin' new Ohh but it doesn't matter
'Cause no matter where I go
Every road leads back
Every road just seems to lead me back Every road leads back
Every road just seems to lead me back to you
Every road just seems to lead me back to you
