

I Don't Want to Leave You

Kieran Goss

Sleeping late I hesitate to get out of my bed
It takes half a day to find a way to even clear my head
Then you turn around without a sound but everything is said
With you by my side I think I might just lay back down instead I don't want to leave you, I don't want to let you go
I just want to love you and I want to let it show
How I live for every moment since the day you said hello
I don't want to leave you, I don't want to let you go I couldn't fight the morning light shining on your hair
So I hold you tight with all my might with everything we share
How you mesmerize me with your eyes, how could I turn away
When you love me like a perfect night in the middle of the day?
