

I Miss You

Candy Hearts

I always liked to sleep alone
Now I can't sleep
And even if you wake me up
I'd rather you be next to me And I'm not sentimental
You found this part of me
I just roll my eyes now
At everything I'm thinking I miss you and you haven't even left yet
When you get home, come stay in my bed
Forever doesn't seem so awful with you
I want to spend forever hanging out with you Hanging out with you
Hanging out with you
Hanging out with you
I got all the notes
That you left for me
In the bathroom of a different coast
The pocket of my jeans I'm not sentimental
Don't need you to remind
I still think about you
Only all the time I miss you and you haven't even left yet
When you get home, come stay in my bed
Forever doesn't seem so awful with you
I want to spend forever hanging out with you Hanging out with you
Hanging out with you
Hanging out with you
Our love is like a tarnished ring
Even when it's gone
It turned my finger green.
Beneath every silver lining
Are the parts we try to hide
But I don't mind I'm not sentimental
You found this part of me
I just roll my eyes now

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>