

Fuck You

Die Trying

my emotion runs high can you counterweight and make me feel?
can you hear my voice come down, down, down? can you take that away and do what i say?fuck you, this doesn't matter don't say this doesn't matter now
'cause you don't know what you meani'm so tired of your ways don't say this doesn't matter fuck you, this doesn't matter i'm so tired of your ways don't say this doesn't matter'cause it mattersmy emotion runs high can you take that away to make me feel? i gave through intimidation cut back by the words you said, you said and the way you said themfuck you, this doesn't matter
don't say this doesn't matter'cause it's matters to me it mattersi'm so tired of your ways
don't say this doesn't matter
don't say this doesn't matterit matters, it matters
