Who that who that (oooh)
Who that Who that (oooh)
Who that is?
Tell me who that isSo you tired ain't cha, boy you don't look tired to me
You just a liar ain't cha, you in the bed right next to me tellin her good night like yo ass 'bout to go sleep
What does this look like, think you tryna make a fool of meBut you're the fool there's only one fool in the room
Its you, only thing I've ever asked of you is that you Don't lie (don't lie) don't lie (don't lie)
look me in the eye and tell me why she can feel like
You ain't mine hittin your phone talkin 'bout you're my babyWho that is actin like she can say that
Who that is boy you know i don't play that

Who that Who that (oooh)
Who that is?
Tell me who that isYou let a text message, get you all caught up
Never even second guessed it, how do you know her
Think back to the night, while you was dancin all on her
What if I said I, was the one who set it all upNow you're the fool, only one fool in the room
Its you, only thing i've ever asked of you is that you
Don't lie (don't lie) don't lie (don't lie)
Look me in the eye and tell me why she can feel like
You ain't mine hittin your phone talkin 'bout you're my babyWho that is actin like she can say that
Who that is boy you know i don't play that hold on lemme finish who that is Why don't you reply

Tell me who that is this late a nightWho that who that (oooh)
Who that who that (oooh)
Who that Who that (oooh)
Who that is?
Tell me who that is
