

Wooden Heart (live)

The Duke Spirit

No one wastes time quite like I do
I can waste time like nobody else
You can go running back to your friends
You can go running back to your friends Well, that's how it feels
Oh, that's how it feels I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
I would understand your heart
If I could feel it All I have is all that I am feeling
All I feel well it's all that I know
And then I use it every day
And abuse it in every way And that's how it feels
Yeah, that's how it feels I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
I would understand your heart
If I could feel it The sky is more certain
Than you will ever be
The rain clouds are angry
At you and at me The sky is more certain
Than you will ever be
The rain clouds are angry
At you and at me Forgive me baby
I am not all that you see I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
I would understand your heart
If I could feel it I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
Oh, I would understand your heart
If I could feel it
