LASCIVIA
(A. Carter)

It's Hell, it really is Hell
Never being close to you
This fool bound by a spell
You were all I wanted to do
It's too late, I never had a chance
This sickening feeling is all I have left of you

Fire in my heart, coursing through my veins
Hollowness, and then I'm gonna go insane

The first is always the worst
Getting hooked and bleeding out
Your love was sure to be a curse
I know I'm better without
It's too late, we never had a chance
This dying feeling is all I ever had of you

Fire in my heart, coursing through my veins
Hollowness, and now I'm gonna go insane

GO INSANE!

(Solo - Carter)
