Fluorescent

Gwen Stefani

Im not sayin' nothin' you dont already know
You know youre too delicious, more than I can handle
Lyin around late at night, so luscious that I ache
Baby, whyd you fall asleep? Im still awakeIm in love, in love with a dream
My Valentines gone and broke my wings
Ill see in time, I feel a bit weak

You better be right 'cause you promised meI must have lost my mind I cant believe youre still inside my bed

I nearly walked away

I didnt think wed still be rollinDressin' up in your love is a dangerous thing My sexy super lovers got a real bad sting

Baby, didnt want no trouble, this is more than I can afford I cant help myself, keep comin' back for more

For more, cant help comin' back for moreIm in love, in love with a dream

My Valentines gone and broke my wings

Ill see in time, I feel a bit weak

You better be right 'cause you promised meI must have lost my mind I cant believe youre still inside my bed

I nearly walked away

I didnt think wed still be rollinAnd as I watch you sleep in the dim light I close my eyes and pray

Another fluorescent night

Yeah, you and ILate night lovers kickin in the covers

Dont need no one but you and I

'Cause every day's a weekend, forget what we were thinkin Another sweet fluorescent nightI must have lost my mind

I cant believe youre still inside my bed

I nearly walked away

I didnt think wed still be rollinAnd as I watch you sleep in the dim light

I close my eyes and pray Another fluorescent night Yeah, you and I
