

Haunted

Mr. Little Jeans

Silent sleep
Insanity
You didn't even flinch And my heart is breaking still
As millions of reasons
Drown in a spill
From yesterday don't worry
I'll keep pretending I will A flick of a switch
From color to cold
Your blood's running dry
And I'm haunted No longer around
No longer to me
No longer tripping up a fallen Moonlit now
The land of snow
Un-invite me in And my heart is breaking still
As millions of reasons
Drown in a spill
From yesterday don't worry
I'll keep pretending I will A flick of a switch
From color to cold
Your blood's running dry
And I'm haunted Undo I can't but I'll learn
Trespassing guilty
I know never to return
Boreas city Glass roads lead me to
Your 1st floor apartment
Go back, go in
Make it be forgotten A flick of a switch
From color to cold
Your blood's running dry
And I'm haunted
