

Send Em 2 tha Essence

Lil Ugly Mane

Death is in your blood
Fear is all in your head
That's what my OG said
So I'm lampin like I'm already dead
Bitch, give me that bread
Give me that bracelet
Grimy motherfucker that's my reputation
I'm under criminal investigation
One bitch squealed before he passed away from complication
That's just the world I'm facing
Murder plots
Aiming glocs at your knocks
Give me all you got
Have you sliding out your jewels and your watch
Feeling charged like a million watts
Blood spilling on the block
Not a verbal shot, you could really get got
I let the serpents that I worship underneath the surface murder me
Preferably refer to me as king, I move vertically
Run the block unmercilessly
You got the nerve to curse with me?
The gat will discourage any dreams you got of merkin me
I'mma take it personally, it's curtains universally
So fuck commercial rap, you just committing perjury
Oh you out for notoriety?
You rappers so precious
Send they ass a message when I send em to the essence
The underground kid got you all in his sights
We gonna die for what we love in this life
Yo, send em to the essence
Send em to the essence, godAye yo, black links, gold and glitter
Sleeping in the blink like a pulse emitter
The earth it rolls so quick, now I'm old and bitter
But the crew stay thick through the coldest winter
Yo, I'm disregarding consequence and common sense, fuck it
You rappers just lying, you ain't rhyming you a puppet
U-g-l-y I'm in a class of my own
I lost an ounce and a lighter in the cushion of my throne
Laid back rollin that zone, kick it like Capone

Bad news brown, Bubble Goose down
Couple screws loose now, double trouble oooh
Roll around in No Limit tanks, it's all true
Pockets on serious, the moon is eclipsing
Buried in my gold, got me feeling so Egyptian
Pinky ring looking like I took it off of Saturn
If you talking crazy you just talking about my swagger
Oh you out for notoriety?
You rappers so precious
Send they ass a message when I send em to the essence
The underground kid got you all in his sights
We gonna die for what we love in this life
Yo, send em to the essence
