

FoolMoon

KAMAU

Oh say Keep my eyes on the full moon
She never changes changes
Until I look away (hey)
Until I look away (hey)
(hey, hey)
(hey, hey, hey) I need somebody
To come and free my people
To come and feed my people
To make them eat
They're starving
Sitting at the
I need somebody
To come and free my people
To come and feed my people
To make them eat
They're starving
Sitting at the feast
(ah) Where the best is
Hundred miles from where the rest is
Some of them hungry and restless
Cause they had to run from the resting
Wasn't trying to get arrested or rest
Eternally down where the rest left
A lot of us want to get down
Never left nest
Lest feel lesser than last
Thats the best threat
(ah) That'll make a brotha breathless
Make a gold necklace neckless
That'll leave a checklist checkless
Put the fear of God in your chest-ases
Where the best is
They're addressing it
Investigate
Invested in
No vest in it
With the chest exposed
Till the end
Because the rest is gold I need somebody

To come and free my people
To come and feed my people
To make them eat
They're starving
Sitting at the -
I need somebody
To come and free my people
To come and feed my people
To make them eat
They're starving
Sitting at the feast Keep my eyes on the full moon
She never changes changes
Until I look away (hey)
Until I look away (hey)
(hey, hey)
(hey, hey, hey) Don'tcha know
Talking about revolution
Sounds like a whisper Eyes up in the night-
(fa-la-la-la-la-la) Who's the best in the cellar
Who's got the keys to cellar
Who gonna sell out
Who put ki's in the cellar
Who gonna sell them
Who's the best Cinderella
Who shallow, Who cello
Which ones gonna make it to Coachella
Which one's gonna end up in a coat check
Who's got the code to
Decode all the cold in the cell I need somebody
To come and free my people
To come and feed my people
To make them eat
They're starving
Sitting at the -
I need somebody
To come and free my people
To come and feed my people
To make them eat
They're starving
Sitting at the feast Keep my eyes on the full moon
She never changes changes
Until I look away (hey)
Until I look away (hey)
(hey, hey)
(hey, hey, hey) Eyes on the full moon

She never changes changes
Until I look away (hey)
Until I look away (hey)
(hey, hey)
(hey, hey, hey) Eyes on the full moon
She never changes changes
Until I look away (hey)
Until I look away (hey)
(hey, hey)
(hey, hey, hey)
