

Black Comedy

Bright Eyes

Well once I gave a look to you but you never gave it back
So here I stand expressionless but my memories intact
I guess the past is good for a laugh
A comedy so dry and black it makes my stomach hurt so bad Well two thumbs up we give this one despite its predictable ending
The dialogue seemed rushed and wrong
But the actors did their best
To lay some worth on every word like coffins dropped into the earth
The saddest sound we ever heard
We sang along
We sang it "take this weight away"
We sang it "take this weight away" (we're singin')
We're singin' "take this weight away away away"
