Front Cut

Leighton Meester

I'm too fly to be all up in this line boy,
I should get a front cut, I should get a front cut!
I'm too fly to be all up in this line boy,
I should get a front cut, I should get a front cut!
Why you are all up in this line,
Why you're looking way too fine,
These chicks ain't on your level,
the sh!t that they could tell you.
You know you're looking good,
Doing what they wish they could,
Plus you spend too much time in the gym,
To be in line waiting behind him.
And you're giving out these bars shining brighter than these stars
looking like a model, too
So they all wanna model you!
Talking and they staring,
But you ain't even caring
Cause just one of your earrings
Cost more than what they're wearing.
Chorus:
you're too fine to be waiting in a line, girl
You should get a front cut,
You should get a front cut, oh oh, oh
I'm too fly to be all up in this line boy,
I should get a front cut, I should get a front cut!
Ohhhhh!
Cause who else be attracting,
These boys are sent here acting,
Like they're money is stacking spendin the show they macking
It's us that gets them open,
Just from the fact they hoping,
You know I got them flowing,
So punk, lift up that rope when
You see me coming through,
Not just me, my girlfriends too!
You know what we came to do,
That's why we in front of you!

Just from what we're flashing,
We're in the highest fashion, clueless girls out here askin, why do we get to pass them?
Chorus:
you're too fine to be waiting in the line, girl
You should get a front cut,
You should get a front cut!
I'm too fly to be all up in this line boy,
I should get a front cut, I should get a front cut!
Ohhhhh!
dont tell meI gotta wait in line,
I said fuck the front door, I should go in through the side
Why dont you lift up that rope to let through
All of these girls in my crew,
Give me a drink or a few,
I mean a bottle or two!
We've been out here too damn long,
and i hear Clint Sparks playin my song Got my Valmont and my Louis Vitton's on You better hurry up, or I'll be gone!
So don't tell me I gotta wait in the line,
Because theres plenty other clubs that want me inside!
if you aint tryna wait in no line,
Cause you know that youthe shit
Put your hands in the sky!
If you're aint trying to wait in no line,
Cause you know you the shit
Put your hands in the sky!
If you're aint trying to wait in no line,
Cause you know you the shit
Put your hands in the sky!
Chorus:
you're too fine to be waiting in the line, girl
You should get a front cut,
You should get a front cut!
I'm too fly to be all up in this line boy,
I should get a front cut, I should get a front cut!
Ohhhhh!
