

Snuff

Slayer

It starts with vanity, arrogance and greed
Panic is my obsession
No one can escape, the thrill is much too great
Despair is my creation
Everything obscene emanates from me
Homicide is on the rise
It all begins now, take your final bow
The camera never lies
Action, torture, misery, endless suffering
Torment, agony captured for eternity
Action, you're the main attraction
Torture, misery, endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye, to this you can't deny
No one else around, razor wire bound
Insanity is so near
Heart begins to seize, watch you atrophy
Reality is now clear
Take a look inside, many more have died

The Internet's an open door
Everyone can see, dying brutally
The audience begs for more
Action, torture, misery, endless suffering
Torment, agony, captured for eternity
Action, you're the main attraction
Torture, misery, endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye, to this you can't deny
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Torture, misery, endless suffering
Pleasing to the eye, to this you can't deny
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future, killing is my future
Murder is my future
