

1940 - Amplive Remix

The Submarines

Some things wrong when you regret
Things that haven't happened yet
But it's a glorious day when morning comes
Without the feeling of alarm So rise, and shine
Now's the time to be alive
To stay awake with me a while, and smile You couldn't sleep for the awful fright
That kept you up in bed last
But curious shape shift in the dark,
They vanish with the sunrise spark So rise, and shine
Now's the time to be alive
To stay awake with me a while, and smile So rise, and shine
Now's the time to be alive
To stay awake with me a while So rise, and shine
Now's the time to be alive
To stay awake with me a while, and smile Some things wrong
