

After Your Heart

Phil Wickham

Can I have your attention?
What are we starting here?
Just look around you 'cause the answer is clear
Listen, listen and hear the coming sound
All of the children are singing it loud
That lives for holding nothing back, nothing back
All of the walls now are breaking apart
Live like we see it, love like we mean it
This is the start were after Your heart
Up to where heaven and the earth collide
Bring your affection all that you have inside
Enter the kingdom and become alive
It lives for holding nothing back, nothing back
All of the walls now are breaking apart
Live like we see it, love like we mean it
This is the start were after Your heart
Hear the sound of the free
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Sing the song, let it ring
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
Never going to stop until we reach You
All of the walls now are breaking apart
Live like we see it, love like we mean it
This is the start were after Your heart
Never going to stop until we reach You
