

Serious Times (Take 2) [The Remake]

Gyptian

Nuh say these are some serious times
All I can see around us is just violence and crime
Full time for us to centralize, socialize and realize
So, let the sun shine throughout everyday
Let the moon shine through the peaceful night
This is seven times rise
And seven times fall
But I don't really believe in any falling things at all 'Cause life continues as it goes
If you really want to know the truth
Half the truth isn't been told
No no no no no no So I say, these are some serious times
All I can see around us is just violence and crime
Full time for us to centralize, socialize and realize
So, let the sun shine throughout everyday
Let the moon shine through the peaceful night
This is seven times rise
And seven times fall
But I don't really believe in any falling things at all 'Cause life continues as it goes
If you really want to know the truth
Half the truth isn't been told
No no no no no no Just sometimes you think its peace and safety
It could be a vast sudden destruction
Said when you wake up this morning
You better give thanks
You don't know if you gonna live
To see tomorrow
Life is much more precious than gold
And if the truth hasn't been told
So I say These are some serious times
All I can see around us is just violence and crime
Full time for us to centralize, socialize and realize Say on the corner
Watch how you a hang out on the corner
A stray drive by mi she a gwan pan di corner
On the corner the youths them really naw hold nuh order
A stray them go stray and left the border
'Cause a domino them she them gone out they gone play
And den car come in and shot start to spray
All the innocent lives get taken away
So I say These are some serious times

All I can see around us is just violence and crime
Full time for us to centralize, socialize and realize
So, let the sun shine throughout everyday
Let the moon shine through the peaceful night
This is seven times rise
And seven times fall
But I don't really believe in any falling things at all 'Cause life continues as it goes
If you really want to know the truth
Half the truth isn't been told
No no no no no Just sometimes you think its peace and safety
It could be a vast sudden destruction
Said when you wake up this morning
You better give thanks
You don't know if you gonna live
To see tomorrow
Life is much more precious than gold
And if the truth hasn't been told
So I say These are some serious times
All I can see around us is just violence and crime
Full time for us to centralize, socialize and realize
Are some serious times
Serious times, serious times
