One More Night Alone

Carl Wilson

Somebody said all things will pass
All things will pass away
It seems kinda slow, and somehow I know
I'm gonna spend one more night aloneAnd somebody said, don't let her go to your head
Don't let those feelings show
But deep down inside it can't be denied
I'm gonna spend one more night aloneYou found somebody new
And I can't believe it's true
Now ain't you lonely too
(lord) but I miss being with youAnd somebody said, enough has been said
You can't get blood from a stone
So, I try to hide all those feelings inside
Don't want to spend one more night alone
