Without a Struggle

Golden Smog

Travelin' with no anchor, Lord
In a sea of indecision
Lost in fields of languish, Lord
As I am I cannot standI'm here to make a declaration
Won't fall without a struggle
And I accept your invitation
Follow when you callIt's clear to me
That I must join the battle, here at hand
Fly to where the thunder plays
And lightning flashes brightHad this revelation, Lord
You're still my [Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]I'm here to make this promise, dear
Won't fall without a struggle
And I accept your invitation
Follow when you callI'm here to make this promise, dear
Won't fail without a struggle
And I accept your invitation
Follow when you callIt's clear to me
That I must join the battle, here at hand
Fly to where the cannons play
And lightnin' flashes bright
