

State of Mind

Ian Van Dahl

Believe me When life seems to fade in black and white It's never too late to change your mind

Live to fight another day A clear blue sky is moving your way

Believe me Dark clouds, they come and they go Live for today, forget tomorrow

Don't waste your breath on broken dreams Time to shake the dust from your feet

Leave your worries for tomorrow Ain't nothing but a state of mind Tell yourself that you can do it It's not too late
Time to set your dreams in motion Ain't nothing but a state of mind Tell yourself that you can do it It's not too late
