

The Boy Who Stopped the World

Aaron Sprinkle

Don't think you could stop it now
I'd like to see you try somehow
Realize that it puts it all on you
There's nothing you can do
Right now you're sick and tired
You're feeling sad, you're feeling uninspired
And the clock just won't slow down
Like it gets it kicks pushing you around, you around
Maybe in the morning it won't be
Quite as bad as it seems
But the fact that you can't change
The speed of sound, the rate of age
Is an understatement to
A state of mind your not used to, used to You'd be forever known
As the boy who stopped the world and made his own
Right now you're sick and tired
You're feeling sad, feeling uninspired
So I pray for you my friend
That you'll fall down, you'll give in, you'll give in
