Return to the Tribe

Edguy

Road lies ahead
And a long road lies behind me
I see lights passing by
And I know it's the time of our lives
A million miles
Lightyears I've been travelling
To watch and enjoy this wolrld
And I've seen ass galoreI'm musing over it all
Closing my eyes to remember it all
Embracing the past and the future to come
Kiss the road that leads to my tribe..I've found my way home
I'll return to where I belong
Back to where I stem from-back to Paradise
Time to return to the tribe!The other side - always close to the edge
Been walking a thin line
Always knew someone watched my step
A mistery to make it out alive and sane
The battle is over
And I know who's been with me..Now I'm musing over it all
On top of this world I remember it all
Awaiting that sunrise and sunset at home
Kiss the way that leads me to my tribeI've found my way home...I've seen battlefields,drunk drummers
Japanese hotel toilets
Piesel tuning guitar
And A.C. being my personal slave
