

Pittsburgh

William Fitzsimmons

Should you survive the fall from branches we have climbed and lost yourself in years the ones we left behind
Should rivers run between your frozen heart and mine and words we spoke so young were cast before our time

Iâ€™ll come for you if you want me to

Should all your sons forgive their fathers where they fell and wrap them for the cold to rest their winters well

Iâ€™ll come for you if you want me to Pittsburgh

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>